International application No. PCT/EP2004/013339

Box No. III Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability
The questions whether the claimed invention appears to be novel, to involve an inventive step (to be non obvious), or to be industrially applicable have not been examined in respect of:
	the entire international application,
\boxtimes	claims Nos. 19,21
because:
	the said international application, or the said claims Nos. relate to the following subject matter which does not require an international preliminary examination (specify):
	the description, claims or drawings (indicate particular elements below) or said claims Nos. are so unclear that no meaningful opinion could be formed (specify):
	the claims, or said claims Nos. are so inadequately supported by the description that no meaningful opinion could be formed.
\boxtimes	no international search report has been established for the whole application or for said claims Nos. 19,21
	the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence listing does not comply with the standard provided for in Annex. C of the Administrative Instructions in that:
	the written form		has not been furnished
			does not comply with the standard
	the computer readable form		has not been furnished
			does not comply with the standard
	the tables related to the nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence listing, if in computer readable form only, do not comply with the technical requirements provided for in Annex C-bis of the Administrative Instructions.

Box No. VII Certain defects in the international application

The following defects in the form or contents of the international application have been noted:

see separate sheet

Re Item III.

Rule 39.1(iv) PCT - Method for treatment of the human or animal body by surgery

Re Item V.

Reference is made to the following document:
 D1: US 2003/109886 A1 (KEEGAN ET AL) 12 June 2003 (2003-06-12)

2 INDEPENDENT CLAIM 1

2.1 The present application does not meet the criteria of Article 33(1) PCT, because the subject-matter of claim 1 does not involve an inventive step in the sense of Article 33(3) PCT.

The document D1 is regarded as being the closest prior art to the subject-matter of claim 1, and discloses (see the whole document) all the features of claim 1.

However, the subject-matter of claim 1 differs from this known catheter in that: the first shaft member is a pull wire and the second shaft member is a pusher tube.

This is a mere juxtaposition of technical features, hence claim 1 of the present application cannot be considered as involving an inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT).

DEPENDENT CLAIMS 2, 5, 20
Dependent claims 2, 5, 20 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty and/or inventive step (Article 33(2) and (3) PCT).

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY (SEPARATE SHEET)

International application No.

PCT/EP2004/013339

Re Item VII.

- 1. Independent claims are not in the two-part form in accordance with Rule 6.3(b) PCT, which in the present case would be appropriate, with those features known in combination from the prior art (document D1) being placed in the preamble (Rule 6.3(b)(I) PCT) and with the remaining features being included in the characterising part (Rule 6.3(b)(ii) PCT).
- 2. The features of the claims are not provided with reference signs placed in parentheses (Rule 6.2(b) PCT).
- 3. Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the document D1 is not mentioned in the description, nor is this document identified therein.
